Ideas to accompany the story

- Draw the characters on card, cut them out and stick them onto spoons to retell the story. Maybe you`d like to try your own characters? Maybe they might like to bake something else? Maybe they had to go to the supermarket instead of a mill? Here are some characters if you would like to print them out to use.

- Have ago at baking your own bread just like the Little Red Hen, here is a yummy recipe.
<https://www.cookingwithmykids.co.uk/easy-bread-recipe-for-kids/>. When you use a recipe you have to measure how heavy the ingredients are. Here is a weighing game you might try. <http://www.lcfclubs.com/lcf-maths/flash04/z04-games/z04-heavier-and-lighter.asp>. You could ask your grown up to collect different items to feel and say which is heavier or lighter and use your weighing scales to check.
- Sing along to songs <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BLEt5lxqAHA>
- Would you help the Little Red Hen? In this story we learn how important it is to help one another. How do you help your grown ups and family. Draw pictures about how you do this. Here is another story about why it is important to help others.

- Collect empty boxes and write a number between 1 and 10 on them, count the same number of farm animals into each box. Mix them up and see if your grown up can do this. Choose a number and make the same number of animal sounds eg 3 = quack quack quack.
- Remember to look at all the other activities on our website too.

I hope you enjoy these jobs, have a good week.
