

Week beginning 30th November 2020

Reading & Writing:

- Choose a story to read every day.
- Keep practicing your letter sounds, how many do you know? Find some things that begin with each letter sound?
- Can you make some words with the sounds m, a, s, d, t, i, n, p, g, o?
- Can you read these words and draw a picture to go with them? Jet, pen, pot, leg, van, bag, tin, bun, wig, mug.
- Practise writing the letters using the letter formation rhymes.
- Practise writing your name.
- Choose your favourite story and make a story map.
- Do you know what alliteration is? It is when words start with the same sound, e.g. moody, magical Meg. Can you make some alliteration strings with the names of people in your house?

PE & Music and Movement

- Pretend you are an astronaut and have landed on the moon - show your grown up how you would explore by running, skipping, galloping, hopping, side stepping. What do you think you would see?
- How many different ways can you jump? How high can you jump? Can you land on one leg? Jump forwards and backwards, from side to side, up and down on the spot in time to a beat. Put lots of little 'aliens' (soft toys) in a row and jump over them without getting your toes tickled.

- Try jumping from 2 feet to 2 feet - forwards, backwards, side to side.
- Learn about music with Yolanda
