

LESSON 2 - Fronted Adverbials

Using the fronted adverbial word bank at the bottom of the page, choose the most appropriate adverbial for each of these sentences.

CHALLENGE: Can you write 2 more sentences of your own with a fronted adverbial?

1. _____ , the brave scientist entered the mouth.
2. _____ , he could hear Daisy's teeth ripping and grinding the food.
3. _____ , Max plummeted down Daisy's oesophagus.
4. _____ , he fell into the gastric juices of Daisy's stomach.
5. _____ , the odour of the stomach acid filled Max's nostrils.
6. _____ , Max heard the bile flow down the small intestine.
7. _____ , he passed the entrance to the appendix.
8. _____ , he noticed the piles of faeces around him.

Suddenly	Wide-eyed	After what seemed like an eternity
Like a brave knight		Without warning	Relieved	Like a flood
Feeling nervous	Breathing heavily	Scanning around	All around
From somewhere nearby	Closing his eyes	Horrorified	Hours later
