

Rhetorical Questions

Rhetorical questions can be used to persuade a reader. They are questions that do not require a response but instead are asked and included in persuasive texts for effect.

Match the rhetorical question to the topic by colouring the matching pairs in the same colour.

Young children should not be allowed to watch TV.	Haven't you always longed to go home when it's too hot to work properly at school?
It is cruel to keep animals in cages.	Have you ever wondered what it would be like to live in a mansion or to have people from all over the world recognise your face?
School uniforms should be banned.	Do you enjoy eating ice cream by the beach on a warm, sunny day?
Being famous would be the best thing in the world.	Wouldn't you love to be able to wear whatever you wanted to school each day?
Summer is the best season of the year.	How would you feel about being kept in a cage, locked up with hardly any space to move around in?
Schools should be closed on days over 30°C.	Did you know that too much time in front of a television can seriously affect children's eye health?
