

Can you take the two simple sentences below and turn them into a complex sentence?

Example:

Michael played his guitar. He was in his room.

Michael, who was in his room, played his guitar.

1. The Giant Redwoods are the tallest trees in the world. They grow more than 350ft. (which)
2. The Giant Redwoods, which grow more than 350 ft, are the tallest trees in the world.
3. The sun shone brightly over the forest. It dazzled like a sparkling gem. (which)
4. The children laughed softly. They were playing amongst the trees. (who)
5. The wind blew ferociously through the enormous branches. It howled like a wolf in winter. (which)