

Tasting station

Is it savoury?

Is it bitter?

Is it spicy?

Is it sweet?

Is it sour?

Tasting challenges:

1. Can you match the foods to their tastes?
2. Can you find out how our tongue tastes different foods?
3. Can you find out why our tongues are bumpy?
4. Why do you think we need to be able to taste things?

Sight station

What colours can you see?

What is the smallest thing you can see?

What shapes can you see?

What is the farthest thing you can see?

Sight challenges:

1. Try the sight puzzles, what did you find out?
2. Play Kim's game with a partner, how many things can you remember seeing?
3. Can you find out if people can see in the dark?
4. Can you find out what the different parts of the eye are?
5. Why do you think we need to be able to see?

Hearing station

What type of sound is it?

How many sounds can you hear?

Which is the loudest part of the classroom?

Which is the quietest part of the school?

Hearing challenges:

1. Stay completely still for one minute. How many sounds can you hear?
2. How many different types of sounds can you make with the instruments?
Eg. shaking, scraping, tapping...
3. Play chinese whispers. What is the quietest voice you can use that can still be heard?
4. Why do you think we need to be able to hear?

Smelling station

Is it a nice smell?

What does it remind you of?

Is it a sharp smell?

Is it a sweet smell?

Smelling challenges:

1. Can you match the pots to their smells without looking at what's inside?
2. What do the smells make you think of?
3. Can you think of some smells that might show us danger is near?
4. Why do you think we need to be able to smell?

Touch station

Is it rough?

Is it smooth?

Is it sharp?

Is it heavy?

Is it light?

Can you guess what it is?

Touch challenges:

1. Play the feely bag game. Can you guess what is inside without looking?
2. Use the blindfolds to direct a partner around the room. Make sure you give clear instructions!
3. Try feeling some objects with your hands, feet, nose, elbows... Which is the most sensitive?
4. Why do you think we need to be able to feel things?